

There are three Quality organizations in New Mexico; Each with an important mission. We fully support one another!!!

- National level - American Society for Quality
ASQ Section 1400 is focused on NM's quality professionals. ASQ is the primary Certification body and teaches numerous methodologies and tools.
- State level - Quality New Mexico
QNM is focused on organizational performance improvement using the Baldrige Framework
- Local level - Albuquerque Quality Network
AQN is focused on teaching quality basics to interested individuals.
